- The practical training company should ensure that the trainee is provided with the practical training contents described in §3 and the necessary skills and knowledge.
- The use of devices, tools and materials necessary for the education of the trainee are to be provided without charge
- Activities which serve an educational purpose and are appropriate to his/her physique are to be transferred to the trainee. The practical training company should appoint a responsible person who, together with the school and the student, provides a working timetable and looks after the trainee during the practical training both professionally and organizationally. Visiting school teachers should be allowed visits on request.
- The practical training company should immediately inform the school if the trainee doesn't start the program or of an early termination of contract, as well as accidents that are related to the practical training.
- The practical training company issues a testimonial about the tasks performed and the achievement during the practical training one week after the practical training ends at the latest. In particular, the report should contain information about the trainee's commitment, his/her ability to work in a team and his/her ability to work independently, the quality of the work done, his/ her creativity and intellectual grasp. A form for this testimonial is provided by the school.
- Trainees under age don't have to undergo a medical examination according to § 33 ArbSchG (=law to protect the rights of young employees), because the practical training lasts less than two months and the tasks to be performed are not expected to cause any damages to the trainee's health.
- The internship company is responsible for compliance with occupational health and safety during the internship period.

6) Payment
